Dear Examiner Wong:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation confirming your Office Action's response, here are the formal textual changes to the two claims (Claim 1 and Claim 2) we discussed.

In Claim 1, at line 16, "waves" is replaced by "signals"; and at line 53, "channels" is replaced by "capability means".

The identical changes are made at the same points in Claim 2, at lines 73 and 110, respectively.

I am sending a marked-up text with continuous line numbering for accurate reference, and a clean text with per-page line numbering, faxed upside down for ready separation. I understand and approve an Examiner's Amendment, and appreciate your assistance.
